

A110

Frederick Brent Scollie fonds

Originals and copies, 22.5 cm of textual records

Scope and Content:

Series A 110/1/1-5 - Research, 19 cm

Correspondence, mailing lists, notes, newspaper articles (dating from as early as 1881), copies of court documents and municipal bylaws, journal articles, book chapters, handwritten notes, statistics, reports, preliminary manuscripts.

1) "Thunder Bay Mayors and Councillors, 1873-1945"

Information related to 414 biographies for the book of the same name

2) Rufus Allen Burriss

Researched and written for the Dictionary of Canadian Biography

Also contains a copy of "Wartime in Song and Story: Gertrude Cornish Knight, Motherhood, Patriotism and Temperance 1910-1922"

3) Daniel Francis Burk

Researched and written for the Dictionary of Canadian Biography

4) James Conmee

Researched and written for the Dictionary of Canadian Biography

5) Street Railways

Series A 110/2/1-2- Correspondence, 0.5 cm, 1985-2006

1) Dr. Elizabeth Arthur; July 1985 - July 1997

2) Sydney Smith; February 2006 - April 2006

Series A 110/3/1- Thunder Bay Historical Museum Society, 3 cm

Correspondence, mailing lists, term papers, royalty statements, film/microfiche indexes, membership lists, newsletters, president's reports, article drafts.

Biographical Sketch: Brent Scollie was born in April 1940 in Fort William. He graduated from Fort William Collegiate Institute in 1958 and went on to graduate from Queen's University in Kingston in 1962. After graduating from the Faculty of Library Science at the University of Toronto, he spent a few years in Thunder Bay teaching at high schools, and one year as an assistant professor at Lakehead University. In 1973, he moved to Ottawa where he entered the federal public service and served held numerous positions. He retired in March 1997. Mr. Scollie has written an extensive number of articles which have been published in a variety of sources, including the Dictionary of Canadian Biography, Ontario History, and the Thunder Bay Historical Museum Society's Papers and Records. He has also published a book titled, Thunder Bay Mayors and Councillors, 1873-1945. He is a lifetime member of the Thunder Bay Historical Museum Society.

Additional Information: Donated by Brent Scollie in 2007